

David Orr – At the Heart of Society

Presidential Address of the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers

Thursday 15 May 2008
Tea and coffee at 19.30
Lecture – 20.00

David will present his thoughts on how engineers should be at the heart of society. He looks at four perspectives – the unsung heroes of our profession, what being a professional means, excellence in procurement and the value that civil engineering brings to the local community.

Location: Rochestown Park Hotel
Douglas
Co.Cork

All who are interested are welcome and entry is free
