

In May 2011, Quigg Golden will be hosting two free seminars in Cork and Galway for both Employer and Contractor-side professionals.

Legal Update for Public Sector Architects, Engineers and their Consultants

Radisson Hotel, Galway; Thursday 5 May 2011; 1.00pm – 4.30pm

Gresham Hotel, Cork; Monday 9 May 2011; 1.00pm – 4.30pm

This is a practical and interactive briefing aimed specifically at public sector professionals and their consultants. The briefing will cover recent developments in procurement law and construction dispute resolution.

Procurement Law

- The impact of the Remedies Directive
- Getting the best result – within the law
- Feedback to tenderers, Freedom of Information and allied requests

Dispute Resolution

- The new Public Works Contract (PWC) termination procedures
- Changes to Conciliation and Arbitration under the PWC
- The impact of the Arbitration Act 2010

Quigg Golden will also be delivering:

Maximising Chances of Securing Public Sector Work A guide to the completion of PQQ and Quality Submissions

Radisson Hotel, Galway; Thursday 5 May 2011; 6.00pm - 8.00pm

Gresham Hotel, Cork; Monday 9 May 2011; 6.00pm – 8.00pm

- Public Procurement – The Basics
- Reading the PQQ and Tender
- The 10 most common problems in the completion of PQQ Technical Questions and Tender Quality Submissions
- Advancing your case without damaging relationships with Public Sector clients
- When it all goes wrong – First steps in challenging an unlawful process

Booking Details

Should you wish to reserve a free place on a seminar, please email Seminars@QuiggGolden.com. If you have any queries in relation to reserving a place telephone Rachael at (01) 676 6744.

Free Consultation

Should you wish to take advantage of our no-obligation one hour free consultation on any aspect of construction law or procurement, please do not hesitate to contact us.